

What is it?

- House Cabaret is a 90min performance broadcast from your home;
- A cutting edge mix of reality TV and an old school variety show.
- Book us and TONIGHT, for one night only, your house will become the House Cabaret television studio.
- For your invited guests we will offer a wonderful, magical spectrum of entertainment.
- Between 7.30pm and 9pm this entertainment will be broadcast live on the web and afterwards highlights will be available to download from:

www.housecabaret.com

How does it work?

- House Cabaret is part of the whole new world of internet broadcast and do it yourself television.
- By hosting House Cabaret you are making history. This is your party, totally private for you and your guests and yet broadcast to the world though the internet.
- The worldwide audience will be invited to participate through social networking and instant messaging
- From Sidmouth to Sydney, friends and colleagues can watch the event live or download the podcast.

So if you have a fast broadband connection and a house with at least one bedroom, living room, kitchen/dining room, toilet and bathroom then: -

- Book a Date now (we are only performing three nights a week for the duration of August). The first three dates (9th, 11th and 13th) are already booked!
- We will arrange an onsite meeting (your chance to meet the director, the producer and the cameraman).
- We will go over the venue, tell you how the event works, talk to you about your likes and dislikes, and determine which spaces we will use.
- Set a cost for the event dependant on how many guests you can invite.

Finally:

We will send you a timetable of your House Cabaret.

5pm on the day we will turn up to set up.

7pm you guest should be arriving

7.30pm Showtime!!
